ITEM 3 - CHAIRMAN'S REPORT

3. Another season with no problems to report. The only cause of some concern is the lack of interest in the Sunday League. The change in format has not produced the anticipated increase in applications, in fact, it is only entries from Gwynnes Club which kept it afloat this season. This is an unsustainable situation and could even see the demise of Sunday League pool.

4. The Chairman extended his thanks to Peter Kent and Emma Barnes for their sterling efforts on another successful presentation night and also gave thanks to Bob Harmston for the use of Gwynnes Club for the occasion.

5. Emma was also thanked for her work in setting up and maintaining a Facebook page for the League.

NOTE OF ACTION.

Following the meeting, an impromptu discussion arose concerning the composition of the Thursday and Sunday Leagues.

Flek Bellamy, the League founder and welcome guest at the AGM, advised the members that in his area the singles league comprises 10 games, but each player may, if necessary, play twice, thus a fixture could be completed with any number from 5 to 10 players, giving flexibility and the opportunity to play more or less players depending on team circumstances.

Of course, It doesn't have to be 10 players, but it does form a good basis for discussion and will be debated at the next committee meeting.

Emma has agreed to post an entry on the Facebook page to enable members to give their opinions and to make suggestions.
